

MMOC Parish Council Meeting

Chairperson Reports

date: March 29, 2016

opening prayer: Kathy Newbold

approve at April 28, 2016 meeting

Msgr. Telhorst

general comments, no specific report

We are looking for a person to change the entry sign on a weekly basis.

Mort Small Administration and Finance presented the preliminary budget for all to review.

The budget will be voted on at the next meeting.

Mort answered specific questions by many about specific line items.

The ad-fin committee meets on the third Tuesday of each month.

Denise Kennedy Athletics

Reported that Doug Ilff was awarded the coach of the year award at the annual coaches appreciation dinner.

The appreciation dinner was very well attended with 35 coaches in attendance were man commented on how very nice of event the dinner was.

Judy Nigh Christian Formation

The chairperson for the next women's ACTS retreat is Mary Brutcher.

ACTS leadership training is April 2

ACTS core training is April 9

Pro-life there are 16 parishioners are registered to participate at a walk at birthright shower on April 9 & 10.

Mary Factor Christian Service

Discussions have started with Kathy McGuiness at the Rock Church for women from their parish to attend the MMOC women's ACTS retreat as a seed group.

Deaconess Foundation, a group is going to Jefferson City to meet with state legislators to discuss human right issues.

Outreach information distribution program is to provide information in the weekly bulletin on how to contact parishioners via email.

There is a Bread For The World letter writing campaign is being organized.

Laura Jones is updating the website on social justice issues and on Pope Francis.

Maureen Schumacker Evangelization
John Schumacker Evangelization

On April 10 at the 11:15 mass we are welcoming 15 new parishioners with a tour of the campus and presentation of a parish gift.

Kathy Newbold Health

All the new parishioners are being invited to the next health commission meeting on April 19.

The fun & fitness event was very well organized but had low attendance. Would welcome suggestions on how to better market the event.

Garden tour is May 21, 2016 with a limited number of tickets available.

CPR course will be held on April 30 from 9:00 to 12:00 am. This course is not a health care certified course.

There will be a lecture for caregivers on April 5.

The basket raffle raised $1,949 thanks to many who assisted, with Mary Scalzo being a major contributor to the successful raffle.

In the pink newsletter will be coming out in the Spring with information regarding poison control.

Andy Dapron Liturgy

There was general discussion with regards to the liturgy commission.

There will be discussion at next months meeting when the results of the parish survey is compiled with regards to the proposed new mass times.

Ed Lewandowski Religious Education

The first communion retreat had all 17 of the families in attendance.

First communion is May 1 at 2:00 pm

Christine Stuckel Secretary
Jay Stuckel Secretary

next meeting: April 28, 2016 at 7:00 pm

Jill Farmer Social

no report

Danielle Farmer Youth

youth group Passion Play went very well.

The first youth donut Sunday was a success, and will be continued.

April 17 is a pancake breakfast after all masses sponsored by the youth.

Steubenville is July 8-9-10. 35 teens are registered with is a record attendance level.

Total of 42 (teens and sponsors) will be attending

The event is held on the campus of Missouri State in Springfield.

Two youth will be participating in the LEAD retreat, which is a week long retreat at Missouri State prior to the Steubenville weekend retreat.

Ted Montoia Vice-Chairperson

The newly elected parish council members met together and discerned on who would fill each of the open positions for the next two years.

The new parish council members are:

Administrative Finance Commission - Claude Leezy

Athletic Commission - Bob Slama

Christian Formation - Suzanne Giro CSJ

Evangelization Commission - Michelle Martin

Vice Chairman - Ann Werner

Youth - Ben Dattilo

The installation mass of new parish council members is TBD.

Dave Bujnak Chairperson

Informed all that their information for the Update news letter will be due in April and May.

closing prayer: Kathy Newbold