Mary Mother of the Church

Volume 41 Issue 5

August, 2018

FROM YOUR PASTOR

Fr. Chuck Barthel 894-1373
cbarthel@marymother.org

Earlier this summer I asked this question in one of my bulletin articles: “As you look at the silhouette behind the crucifix in the sanctuary, what is the image that you see?” I received about 30 responses and enjoyed reading the reflections that were shared. It serves as a reminder that beauty, indeed, is in the eye of the beholder.

I don't have enough space in this article to include all the reflections, but here are some examples of what I received.

- ❖ As I reflect upon the silhouette on the wall behind the altar, I hear our Lord telling me /us that beyond the greatest pain and suffering here on earth, we can find peace, comfort and safety in his love for us.
- ❖ As I look at the silhouette behind the crucifix, I see the risen Christ welcoming us into His church and eventually into eternal life with him.
- ❖ All are welcome to celebrate at the Eucharistic Table!
- ❖ “Come here you little sweetie. I want to give you a hug!”

God bless you with health and happiness

SPOTLIGHT ON STEWARDSHIP

Our Spotlight this month is for a person who has done more for Mary Mother than most of us ever realized. He does as much behind the scenes as he does openly. He undertakes large projects, as well as tiny details needed to make things run smoothly. He has been involved in Liturgies, Ad-Fin, Athletics, keeping our grounds and facilities updated, just to name a few. He has blessed Mary Mother by generously sharing his time, talents and treasures for the needs of our parish and the needs of others. His most cherished deed, however, is that of being devoted to the Ministry of Serving both our Lord and His people. Look on page 2 to see who this is.

PARISH COUNCIL CHAIRMAN

Barbara Foley 892-8932
barbaraf63128@yahoo.com

I am sure that many of you have had a busy May/June, with all the graduations, etc. My 3 granddaughters and 1 niece graduated (high school and college) this past May. I love them dearly and pray that all of our children going away to college or to new jobs keep safe. With that in mind, our Parish Council has begun a new year, with new members challenged in their new positions. They too need your prayers and support. Be there for them! ...Nothing is beyond our reach if we reach out together, if we are willing to persevere even in difficult times, and if we rejoice with every small step forward and dream together of ways to transform our lives, our world, committing ourselves to share in Christ's mission. PARISH COUNCIL VICE-CHAIRPERSON

*Dick Roseland 486-8345
pcveep@marymother.org*

Hello Mary Mother. For those of you who don't know me, I am the husband of Lisa, the father of Todd and Brett; and I recently joined the ranks of Grandpa. My granddaughter, Nora, has put a smile on my face that I pray will stay a long time. Our family has been a member of Mary Mother since the early 90's, with my main involvement being sports and coaching both of my sons in all sports. Lisa and I were on Parish Council and more recently involved in the ACTS program.

As summer quickly draws to an end and children return to school, the daily routine will soon set in. We will be busy, not knowing where the time has gone or how we will get everything done. Routine is not exciting, even in baseball (my favorite sport), routine grounders and fly balls are boring. We need to make the play; but everyone expects it to be made. What everyone wants to see is the great play, the diving catch or the perfectly timed jump to take a home run away. My church life had become routine, sports the first 15 years and ACTS the last 10. I had not ventured outside of my comfort zone. I found a routine, albeit a good one; and that was what I did. I am stepping out of My Routine. How about you? More to Come.....

THE SPOTLIGHT'S ON.....

DEACON DICK COFFMAN

Though this Spotlight is long overdue, it is still very timely. We thank you, Deacon Dick, for blessing Mary Mother in so many ways during your 20 years. We pray for God's abundant blessings upon you, as you move into your journey of part-time retirement.

With our love and appreciation,
Your Mary, Mother of the Church Family.

LITURGY NOTES

*Ken Barnes 894-1373
kbarnes@marymother.org*

Have you noticed how Catholic liturgy always seems to have both a vertical and a horizontal component? One could say the vertical aspect is directing our praise, worship, thankfulness, and petition toward God. The horizontal aspect is directing our prayer, support, empathy, and love toward our fellow human beings. During any given liturgy, these two components seem to exist together in the "ebb and flow" of the prayers we say, the songs we sing, and the scriptures and homily that we hear.

It could be said that our faith has both an "indoor" expression and an "outdoor" expression. We come together as Church, inside of a church building, to express the rituals of our mother, the Church. In so doing, we pray and sing our praise to God; and in the same liturgy, we pray and sing about our desire to help the people around us, whether they be near or far --- people we love who are close by, or people we have only heard about in a distant mission land.

When we leave a liturgy, the "outdoor" expression of our faith takes hold. As the sign on the parish driveway says: "You are now entering the Mission Field." When we go out into the world, our faith becomes active; and it is then that we are called to reach out "horizontally" and do our part to help the "Body of Christ" come together.

FAITH COMMUNITY NURSE

*Michele Venable 894-1373
parishnurse@marymother.org*

Wow! The days of summer have, once again, breezed by so quickly! I pray that parishioners of all ages have enjoyed the many blessings that come with the season: a break from the rest of the year's responsibilities, a somewhat "slower pace" for some, togetherness with family and friends, beautiful sights and sounds of nature and gardens, an abundance of local fruits and vegetables...ah, wonderful!

Mary, Mother parishioners continue to offer so much to one another: helping neighbors with errands, visiting and bringing Eucharist to friends who find it too tough to get out in the heat, providing rides to appointments, etc. In this spirit, may I reach out to parishioners who might have time to take another parishioner to Mass, perhaps once a month. With enough volunteers, a rotating schedule could be developed. If available, please call or email. Thank you for your consideration of this!

DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

*Ed Lewandowski 894-1373
edlew@marymother.org*

THANKS TO VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS who served 93 kids (ages 3 thru 12) at “Hero Central: Discovering Your Strength in God!” And we could not have done it without the generous help and patience of our 41 volunteers, especially, those who gave us their time and talent for the entire week. We thank each and every volunteer for putting yourself at the service of God’s little ones! Our Group Leaders were Amy Simmons, Rachel Hammett, Anne Duncan, Mairead Kimberlin, Conor Kargus, Samantha Ramay, Drew Hammett, Billy Ward, Katie McDonnell, Isabella Wirthlin, Elizabeth Chambers, Alyssa Bradley, Luke Kotcher, Brianna Ward, Jacob Blackford and Jordan Laramie. A special thanks to our Master Decorator: Mary Scalzo; our Song Leaders: Kay Lewandowski, Colleen Dundon, Teresa Laramie, Olivia Dattilo, Kiersten Simshauser; Our Storyteller: Regina Bennett; our Snack providers: Liz Brave, Benjamin Torrence, Vincent Santiago, Mary Ann Buehler, Arlene Freeman; our Game Leader: Mary Sturdevant; Craft Coordinator: Becky McDonnell and craft helpers, Carol Drury, Michele Martin, Joan Waeckerle, Laura Newsom, Angeline Diongson. Thanks also for the generous “love offerings” to offset the cost of our VBS!

PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION: Registration has passed the July 1st due date; we can only accommodate late registrations on the days and at the times available. Once registered, watch for a PSR Notice via email in late August. PSR will open in mid-September. New registrants and anyone who misplaced the Registration Form can call Ed at 894-1373 ext. 218.

ATHLETIC COMMISSION

*Judy Peckham 84982053
athletics@marymother.org*

A big THANK YOU to Bob Slama for 2 years of serving on the Athletic Commission! I know Bob was involved in fixing multiple pieces of Athletic Commission equipment during his term. Thank you, Bob, for your commitment to our kids! Bob has kindly agreed to serve with me on the Leadership Team at Assumption to help get us through the transition.

Let me introduce myself as the new Athletic Commission chairperson. I come to you in all humility with no athletic background. I am a nurse and a licensed professional counselor. I was a school nurse for 21 years and worked in mental health at Hyland Behavioral Health. I have been involved with the Divorced Ministry in the parish for about 8 years. I am a member of the Health Ministry team and one of the nurses who checks blood pressures. I am a Eucharistic Minister at 4:30 Mass.

We are still in need of someone to take over the K-2 training basketball program.

ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE COMMISSION

*Carl Cooper 200-9138
adfin@marymother.org*

As an introduction, my wife Ruth-Anne and I have been in the parish less than 5 years. Our previous parishes were St. Clements (10+years) and Holy Redeemer (30+ years). Mary Mother has been extremely welcoming; and in a short period of time, we have made some exceptional friends. We have 5 children (all over 40 years old) with 8 grandchildren, (4 boys and 4 girls, 4 in town and 4 out of town).

My first month on the Parish Council has been assimilating all the administration and finance duties and projects. The previous AdFin chairman, Claude Leezy, has assisted me in a smooth transition; and, hopefully, he will be on this commission as a great resource for my next 2 years.

There are many major projects to be completed this summer: 1) a new sound with audio video capability for the parish hall; 2) change from electric mechanical system to a gas mechanical system; 3) upgraded security system for the Reilly Center; 4) security cameras for the Annex; 5) new flooring in the classroom building and the replacement of the existing classroom dividers with a wood folding door system that will improve the sound control between classrooms, new blinds and painting of the classrooms and halls.

I would like to thank all the parishioners who give so generously. Without your continued support of time, talent and treasure, Mary Mother would not be what it is today.

THANK YOU

The Adfin Commission monthly meeting is on the third Tuesday of the month. Check the parish calendar and/or bulletin for the exact date. The meetings are held in the church meeting room (in the back of church) at 6:00 PM. The commission would appreciate your input. See you there!

LITURGY COMMISSION

Mary Anne Howe 314-892-6396

As I was going over the Ministry worksheets that I receive each week, I could not help but notice how seldom nobody is listed as Gift-Presenters at our Masses. I have also noticed some Mass Coordinators scrambling to find Gift-Presenters right before Mass begins. This surprises me and makes me rather sad at the same time. Wow! Do we ever consider what that simple bread and wine become? It becomes the Body and the Blood of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ, our spiritual food.

I'd like to invite you to volunteer to have the privilege of being Gift Presenters. Everyone is welcome; Teens, Singles, or Families. It's a wonderful way to be in communion with our parish community with no strings attached! There is no office to run for, no meetings to attend, and no cost - just the honor of bringing forth the gifts that will become our Holy Communion, so we might become more like Him.

Please call me at 314-892-6396 or e-mail me at Imahowe@gmail.com if you would like to volunteer. May you feel God's presence always.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

Karen Karr 416-1992
karr.karen@att.net

Since this is my first "Update" article, I would like to introduce myself. I am a single woman (never married). I went to grade school at Seven Holy Founders and high school at DuBourg. I was a secretary for 30 years. I've belonged to Mary Mother for about 15 years.

If you're trying to figure out who I am, you may have seen me at 11:00 a.m. Mass, carrying a clipboard. I'm what most people call a Mass Monitor. Did you know that they now call us Mass Coordinators?

I've spent the last 20 plus years in a search for God. My image of God has changed considerably over the years. I started as a sponsor in RCIA; then, went to various Bible studies; joined a Catholic charismatic group; went on many retreats; joined prayer groups (including our centering prayer group here at Mary Mother); attended many talks and seminars; participated in many discussion groups.

I'm very pleased to have the opportunity to serve you as the Christian Formation Commission head. Please feel free to contact me at any time with questions or concerns.

YOU'RE INVITED!

Some clients have trouble getting on their financial feet because of costs associated with transportation. SVDP also has two types of programs to meet the transportation needs of its clients. Since a car in need of expensive repairs presents an added burden to someone already experiencing financial difficulty, SVDP works with various mechanics and auto repair businesses to lower the client's repair costs. The other program matches the client to a different vehicle when a different vehicle is the only solution. To help support this program, SVDP accepts donations of cars. Cars and other motor vehicles can be donated by calling 800-322- 8284. The vehicles can be in running condition but do not have to be. The Society will pick up the donation or tow it at no cost to the donor. An added bonus to making this type of donation is a tax credit!
